SPECTRA INTRODUCES NEW CONCESSION STANDS & THE ADDITION OF TWO ROADS BREWING COMPANY & SAM ADAMS BREWHOUSE AT PRATT & WHITNEY STADIUM

(East Hartford, CT –August 16, 2018) As football season rapidly approaches, Spectra is excited to announce the addition of new concession stands and the integration of two major beer names: Two Roads Brewing Company and Sam Adams at Pratt & Whitney Stadium.

The new concession stands coming to Pratt & Whitney Stadium offer a variety of new and exciting food offerings that will further enhance the overall fan experience. These stands feature locally-inspired dishes that bring new flavors to the eating experience at Pratt & Whitney Stadium.

“It is our mission at Spectra Food Service to provide our customers with a unique experience at all of our Sports and Entertainment venues. Here in Connecticut we take great pride in partnering with local restaurants and breweries to bring a unique experience to our fans”, said Spectra’s Charles Tillem, Food Services & Hospitality General Manager, Pratt & Whitney Stadium. “We are most excited about our partnership with Two Roads brewery located in Stratford Connecticut. Working together we have come up with a unique concessions concept that incorporates local hand crafted beer and food”

One of these new stands is the Whey Station Stand, located in section 135 by Gate A. Whey Station, which has been voted CT’s Best Food Truck, will feature a variety of Gourmet Grilled Cheese selections including the popular “Channing Tater” (5 cheese blend, bacon, tater tots, sour cream and scallions).

New this season, will also be the Greek’n Out Food Truck which be serving up traditional Greek favorites. Husky fans can feast on Greek specialties such as chicken and pork gyros along with their fan-favorite sizzlin’ souvlaki.

With great food must come great beer! In addition to the new eats that are being introduced, fans will also be able to sample more than 50 varieties of beer this season. Located in section 107 by Gate B, The brand new Two Roads Tap House Stand will be featuring several Connecticut brewed beers as well as locally made food options. Fans can also enjoy a summer classic, Leinenkugel Beer at the Kettle Girl popcorn stands.

The addition of Sam Adams Brewhouse to section 107 will feature some of New England’s’ favorite beers and food for all to enjoy. The lineup is full of flavorful items including the Frito Pie Bowl and Chowder Pot’s Clam Chowder. On tap you can find Sam’s Seasonal, the Cherry Wheat and of course the Boston Lager.

A fan favorite is returning to the stadium this season- Hot Dog Nation is back! This stand features locally inspired hotdogs along with unique dogs showcasing flavors from across the country. Fans can customize their perfect hot dog by visiting the stand in section 138 by Gate A.

Along with the new stands arriving this season, current food stands are making some moves! Roma Pizza is moving to section 116 by Gate C. Fans can also continue to enjoy the best gluten-free kettle popcorn in the state as Kettle Girl Popcorn is adding another location at section 111.

Pratt & Whitney Stadium is excited to share these new additions with all UConn Husky fans this season. The new partnership with Two Roads Brewing Company and Sam Adam's will excite beer lovers and football fans alike. Furthermore, the integration of local flavors is an exciting enhancement that will truly enhance the overall fan experience.
